

NEWSLETTER

December 2015

Welcome to the December edition of the Schembri & Co Lawyers newsletter. This newsletter is a free service for our valued clients, friends and business associates.

In this edition we provide some practical legal advice in relation to:

1. Testamentary Trusts;
2. The power of statutory demand; and
3. Compensation for Victims of Crime.

FIRM UPDATE

We are pleased to advise that Schembri & Co Lawyers have opened a second office at Level 1, 135-139 Cardigan Street, Carlton.

This provides our clients with the benefit of being able to attend at either office for their convenience. For the most part however, our property law and victims of crime department will remain in Essendon.

We are also pleased to introduce Adam Kerr (solicitor), Jessica Birkenleigh (assistant to Stephen Schembri), Tess Woodall (Essendon receptionist) and Chantelle Johnston (conveyancing clerk) as part of the Schembri & Co team. We are delighted to have such valuable staff join our already dynamic team. Our clients and associates will only benefit from the experience these new staff members bring to our firm.

Clients are assured of a thorough, efficient and sensitive service when engaging our firm to assist in legal matters and we welcome the opportunity to assist you should the need arise. We invite you to view our website at www.schembrilawyers.com.au for a thorough understanding of the various services we provide.
